

EMPATHY ARCHETYPES

THE CONNECTOR

The Connector facilitates action. They communicate with empathy and are central to bringing ideas and people together.

THE MANIFESTOR

The Manifestor is led by curiosity and engages and orients themselves and others towards action. They can deal with ambiguity and emergent ideas easily.

THE GIVER

The Giver is an agent of empathy. They help people feel included, acknowledging their input and experiences. They don't require as much effort to progress and deliver.

THE REFLECTOR

The Reflector is patient. They wait and watch before acting. By being introspective and empathetic they can connect dots that others may not see.

THE SEEKER

The Seeker is an active, enabling participant that embraces curiosity. They embrace a proactive, inventive approach to teams and projects.

THE ROGUE

The Rogue pushes boundaries and takes risks. They often offer unexpected advice and insights and drive innovation.

THE DEFENDER

The Defender champions previous practice. They seek to minimise perceived harm due to change and can be a valuable source of information on past experiences.
